

Virginia Agriculture & Food Entrepreneurship Program
A Two Part Workshop Focused on Food Safety Regulations, Product Development, Business Planning & Marketing Opportunities

Virginia Cooperative Extension, Fauquier County Agriculture Development Department,
Virginia Tech, Piedmont Environmental Council, Flavor Magazine,
Fauquier County Farm Bureau, the Local Food Project at Airlie,
Airlie Foundation, Virginia Foundation for Agriculture Innovation and Rural Sustainability

Featuring speakers such as Kate Fitzgerald of the National Sustainable Agriculture Coalition and Adam Diamond of the USDA.

Also presenting includes representatives from VSU,
Virginia Tech, VDACS and the Virginia Department of Health.

November 16 &
November 23, 2009

Airlie Conference Center
6809 Airlie Road
Warrenton, VA 20187

Limited space available so please
pre-register today!

Pre-Registration Form: (please use separate form per person)

NAME: _____

FARM / BUSINESS NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

PHONE: _____

EMAIL: _____

Please register me for: ___ November 16 ($40) ___ November 23 ($40) ___ Both Days ($80)

FARM/BUSINESS TYPE (please check all that apply):

- Farm — meat and dairy
- Farm — fruits, vegetables, herbs
- Value-Added Producer already in production
- Aspiring Value-Added Producer
- Other: _____

DIETARY PREFERENCES:

- Food allergies _____
- Vegetarian
- Vegan
- Other: _____

Please make checks payable to VCE Northern District Office and mail this form with payment to:
Makrissa Winston, P.O. Box 701, Warrenton, VA 20188

Walk-in registrations will be considered if capacity allows for it. Limited scholarships are available!
For more information, please contact Matt Benson at (540) 341-7961 or mcbenson@vt.edu.